

The London Academic Inn Association Membership Application Form

I/We hereby agree to abide by the rules of the London Academic Inn Association

Signed 1

Signed 2

Every member shall, on election, be given a copy of the rules and shall be deemed to have undertaken to comply with them. Any infringement of these rules or conduct deemed by the Committee to be injurious to the interests of the Association shall render a member liable to expulsion by the Committee provided that, before expelling a member, he or she shall be given the opportunity to give a written or verbal explanation. The vote on a resolution for expulsion shall be by ballot and shall be deemed to have been carried if not less than three quarters of the Committee Members present vote in favour.

Extract from the Rules of the Association

The object for which the Association is formed is to hold meetings in convivial surroundings for the benefit of those living in London and to use such meetings to (a) address the leading topics of the day from the perspective of the human scale; (b) to discuss the conclusions of reports commissioned by the association and (c) to agree on the action necessary to implement the recommendations of commissions appointed by the association.

Any person sympathetic with the object of the Association is eligible for individual or 'family membership'. Family membership shall be open to two persons, e.g. wife and husband or persons in partnership who share the same address for Association purposes.

A candidate for membership may be elected by the Committee of the Association, at its discretion, after being nominated by one fully paid-up member.

With effect from 1st January 2003, the annual subscription payable on election and on the first of January each year shall be £ 20 (twenty pounds) for (i) individual members and (ii) a family membership.
