

Dream Displacement

Researchers: Tom & Mina Lethbridge

The fifth diagram attempts to show how the spiral of rates explains why people in dreams, or during 'out of body' experiences, can look down on their body from above and to one side of it. The second whorl of the spiral may have no thickness, or be of unlimited extent. From sleep at 40, the dreamer looks at himself at 20.

